

10. To what pages of your text would you turn if you needed information that would help you improve your use of proper grammar?
11. On what page of your text will you find a simple explanation of the basic rules for proper apostrophe usage?
12. On what two pages of your text will you find brief definitions for each of the parts of speech?
13. What important information can be found on pages 942-945?
14. When would be an appropriate time to read information found on pages 159-161?
15. What extra information is provided along with the first short story in your text, The Cask of the Amontillado, that is not provided with the second short story, The Most Dangerous Game?
16. What general category of reading selections can be found on pages 635-783?
17. Which short story by James Thurber is found in this text?
18. Which poem by e.e. cummings is found in this text?
19. Which essay by Maya Angelou is found in this text?
20. In your text is a poem which became part of a famous Broadway musical. What is the name of the musical and who is the author of the poem?