Theme

Chapter 29

• Keeping Composure was one theme we thought was important because things were getting worse and the families were giving up.

• Anger and fear were also important themes because on pg. 591 it says "And under the begging, and under the cringing, a hopeless anger began to smolder. And in the little towns pity, for the sadder, men changed to anger and anger at the hungry people changed to fear of them."

Chapter 30

• For ch. 30 we chose faith in God and humanity because it has the final reference and Q&A day. And Rose of Sharon loses her baby, but saves a man.

Pa says, "But we are so hungry" relates to when they are all making just a dollar a day and are still hungry page 111

• Casey goes to jail in place of Tom sacrificing himself for the family. JESUS FIGURE

* Roseasharon's baby dies Pg. 423

"Never Doubted" Send Mrs. Weir right - early. "Never was alive." Talking about Rose Sharon's baby and that connects to the previous chapter in 24 when Rose Sharon died. Connect to the death of Jim. Connect to the fact that she was punished and that she was... at the end of...

Pose of Sharon raised her head "You want let me dance?"

"No I want"

An' don't ^{let} nobody touch me"

"No I want"

Also connects to how Rosa Sharon saves a life, after her baby is gone.
